Documentation needed: Product Formulation Statements (PFS) for Deli Meats or Commercial Products that don't have a 'CN' label. If you ask the Deli for the information, mentioning you're looking for the pump weight should help. Having this documentation will help you give you the serving size. Nutrition Labels for grain products.

Small Hands Crafting

On construction paper, have your children trace and cut out the outline of their hand print. You'll need to do this step for your youngest.

Tell your kids about the custom of making New Year's Resolutions and then ask each child to write, or have you help them write, their

New Year's Resolution on their paper hand.

Attach a magnet to the back. Place their magnet on the fridge to help them remember their resolution all year.

New Year's Day

Did you know your child is learning healthy eating habits through the CACFP?

One of the most important lessons a child will learn is healthy eating habits. The Child and Adult Care Food Program provides resources to help children grow and develop to their fullest potential. Together, with caregivers and parents, we can work to establish and encourage healthy eating habits. Receiving nutritious meals early in life, as well as being physically active, is critical to the establishment of positive lifelong habits.

As we enter this new year, we renew our commitment to provide your child with nutritious foods and nutrition education that will last a lifetime!

Balloon FUN! Movement on New Year's Day

What is a celebration without balloons? There are several ways to incorporate balloons into indoor or outdoor physical activities. Have a balloon relay race where each child runs down to the end of the line with their balloon where they need to pick up a balloon in the next color of the rainbow. When they get back to the start, the next child will run to the end and do the same. Learn colors, talk about rainbows, and get some physical activity in your day! Another alternative? Teach the kids how to play balloon ping pong using paper plates for paddles.
